

Comparing & Ordering Lengths

Grade 2

Name: _____

Compare, order, add, and subtract lengths.

Example: A red pencil is 6 inches long. A blue pencil is 8 inches long. How much longer is the blue pencil?

Answer: 2 inches ($8 - 6 = 2$)

(1) Here are some jungle animals at the watering hole measurements. Order them from shortest to longest: python (20 feet), elephant trunk (7 feet), flamingo (4 feet), crocodile (12 feet)

(2) Here are some backyard creatures measurements. Order them from shortest to longest: lizard (8 inches), garden snake (18 inches), stick bug (6 inches), caterpillar (3 inches)

(3) Here are some backyard creatures measurements. Order them from shortest to longest: earthworm (4 inches), garden snake (18 inches), stick bug (6 inches), caterpillar (3 inches)

(4) Here are some backyard creatures measurements. Order them from shortest to longest: stick bug (6 inches), garden snake (18 inches), caterpillar (3 inches), lizard (8 inches)

(5) Here are some backyard creatures measurements. Order them from shortest to longest: stick bug (6 inches), garden snake (18 inches), lizard (8 inches), caterpillar (3 inches)

(6) Here are some vehicles on the road measurements. Order them from shortest to longest: motorcycle (8 feet), pickup truck (19 feet), sedan car (15 feet), bicycle (6 feet)

(7) Here are some jungle animals at the watering hole measurements. Order them from shortest to longest: python (20 feet), crocodile (12 feet), flamingo (4 feet), elephant trunk (7 feet)

(8) Here are some vehicles on the road measurements. Order them from shortest to longest: bicycle (6 feet), motorcycle (8 feet), sedan car (15 feet), pickup truck (19 feet)

