

Population and Area Subtraction

Grade 2

Name: _____

Solve geography problems using subtraction. Use commas.

Example: Canada's population is 38,005,238. Australia's population is 25,690,000. What is the difference in population? Answer: 12,315,238

(1) A small park has 785 trees. Another park has 230 trees. How many more trees are in the first park? 🌳

(2) A city library has 920 books. A town library has 410 books. What is the difference in the number of books? 📖

(3) A mountain is 875 feet tall. A hill is 340 feet tall. How much taller is the mountain than the hill? 🏔️

(4) A small island has 640 residents. After some people moved away, 120 residents left. How many residents are left on the island? 🌴

(5) A farmer has 560 acres of land. He sells 250 acres. How many acres does he have left? 🚜

(6) A school has 730 students. 315 students are in the younger grades. How many students are in the older grades? 🏫

(7) A river is 980 miles long. A smaller river is 565 miles long. What is the difference in their lengths? 🌊

(8) A zoo has 810 animals. 290 of them are birds. How many animals are not birds? 🦒

