

Pronoun–Antecedent Agreement

Grade 5

Name: _____

The underlined pronoun is incorrect. Write the correct pronoun on the line.

Pronouns must match their noun in number and gender.

Note: each, everyone, and no one are singular.

Example: The dogs wagged its tail. → Correct: their

(1)  The scientists presented its findings at the conference.

(2)  A lone wolf howled at the moon, protecting their territory.

(3)  Each participant received their certificate after completing the challenging marathon. _____

(4)  Everyone in the advanced robotics club submitted their project design.

(5)  The renowned female author signed his latest novel for the eager fans.

(6)  My uncle, a skilled carpenter, proudly displayed her handcrafted furniture.

(7)  The school board announced their decision regarding the new curriculum.

(8)  The technology company launched their innovative new product line.

